City Receives $164,000 Grant

City of Grayling has been awarded a $164,000 matching grant by the Economic Development Administration for extensive water and sewer cation was received by alanche Thursday of last from Senator Philip A.

Archery Company and Hospital, the area's two largest employers will benefit and linkage facilities in industrial park at the edge of town will be pro-biggest part of the project will be a 10-inch water main around the city. This directly past the hospital will need much more when a 40 bed addition and related facilities are completed, and tie in all the loose ends of the present system.

City Manager Harold Cliff noted today that the present 100,000 gallon water storage tank and chemical treatment facilities will be adequate to handle the flow from the new lines, and that only a new 12-inch well will be required.

"This will double our present approximate one million gallon per day water flow," Cliff said. During the winter months Grayling now pumps about 300,000 gallons of water per day; but during the summer this total swells to 700,000 to 800,000 gallons per day.

"The new well will not only give us protection against a dry spell at our present rate of use but will provide plenty of water for new industry, residential and commercial growth," Cliff stated.

Some currently inadequate city lines will also be replaced. There are two major sections of the proposed new sanitary sewer network. One 10-inch line will run about 1,600 feet out to the site of Bear Archery Co., which has long since outgrown the capacity of the septic tanks it has been using. This spur will also service the planned new Crawford County Court house when it is completed.

A second, 1,500 foot, 10-inch spur will run past Mercy Hospital to the industrial park area at the north edge of town. There is now an eight-inch line serving much of this area, but growth is straining its capacity. This spur will also tie miscellaneous other local small lines to the central interceptor line.

About $40,000 of the total funds has been allocated to build a secondary sewage treatment plant to supplement the new lines.

The Detroit architectural engineering firm of Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Stinton, Inc., is now drawing up plans for the project, which hopefully will start by May 1.

The only roadblock left before construction starts is Michigan Municipal Finance Commission approval of a 30-year revenue bond issue for the city share of project cost. If approval is given, the bonds will be put up for sale this spring.

Leo Gannon Retires From U. P. Lumbering

Leo Gannon of Marquette retired in January after almost a half century in the lumbering and milling business in Michigan. One of upper Michigan's most prominent lumber producers, he made the name of Gannon synonymous with lumbering and milling throughout the upper peninsula.

A native of Grayling, he joined the Kerry & Hanson Flooring Co. here in 1922. In 1937 he moved to Big Bay to manage the company's mill there. The Grayling firm sold its Big Bay holdings and mill to the Ford Motor Co. in 1942. Gannon was given the job of rebuilding the mill for Ford, and managed the mills for a year.

In 1943 he went into business for himself, building a mill in Marquette which he sold in 1956. Two years later he purchased the Raish mill and built another at the site. He and his family operated these two ever since.

Although Leo will remain in an advisory capacity the business will be operated by his son, William, and Robert Knox. Leo and his wife Lila, who also retired last week as vice-president, plan to spend their time between Marquette, Florida, and a summer cottage at Grayling. Son William is married to former Grayling resident Jean Lovely, daughter of the Richard Lovells.

The news release for the 43rd Annual Winter Carnival Weekend said "Snow or Sun" it was going to be fun.

With sub zero temperature and snow the Carnival Weekend was fun.

It would be hard to estimate the number of visitors who came into Grayling, but merchants, motel owners, and restaurants played to standing room only crowds.

At Bear Mt., the regular weekend ski groups plus the influx of visitors literally bulged the walls of the ski lodge and the Fred-

Harbor jumped off to 22-18 first period lead, and maintained a 42-39 advantage at halftime. In the first minutes of the second half the Vikings took the lead for the first time and were never headed, as they kept the pressure on the visiting Rams.

Sophomore center Vern Hartman led the Viking scoring with 23 points on 6 field goals and 11 free throws. Mike Smoek was also in double figures with 20 on 8-4. Others hitting the scoring column were Gerry St. Germain with 9, Louis Nielson and Butch Hayes each with 6, Dave Bailey 5, Allen Lowe 4, Dale Papendick 3 and Tony Ellison 2.

Steve Smith of Harbor matched Hartman's scoring as he hit for 23, with Bruce Morris and Doug Beer adding 10 each.

The Vikings were outscored from the field 28 to 27 but shot a 68 percent mark from the free throw lane with 24 out of 35 attempts. Harbor managed 47 percent with 17 of 35. The Vikings lost St. Germain via the foul route while Harbor lost the services of three as Smith, Bodzick and Taylor were called on five personals.

NEW PROBLEM

Snowmobiling, Michigan's newest winter sport, has grown pains similar to those suffered by the boating industry a few years ago. The burgeoning business has reached $150 million in national sales and Michigan will have nearly 75,000 units skimming across the snow by the end of this winter.

The exploding industry has also brought public concern over lack of regulations governing use of the snow machines. Michigan State Police indicate they were flooded with complaints last year, the first season of popular snowmobiling in the southern part of the state. Lieutenant Bryce Grey said the complaints included driving on public highways; racing across pine plantations, breaking off tops of seedling pines which kills young trees; breaking fences to travel cross-country. Two other problems are recognized: the noise of the vehicle and its ability to reach isolated cottages, making them easy prey for burglary.

Little has been done to regulate snowmobiling, though some state agencies recognize the growing problems and need for control. A Department of Conservation spokesman pointed out that discussions of the situation have resulted in a few programs. The department wants to maximize the enjoyment of the sport but minimize public damage and inconvenience.

It developed 18 snowmobile trails in the northern part of the state and is in the process of laying out trails in southern Michigan. The U.S. Forest Service also has developed trails on Federal lands.

Only two conservation laws currently apply to the sport.

One prohibits hunting from the vehicles. The second limits vehicle travel in certain northern state areas.

Lack of law limits, police enforcement. State troopers have been instructed to ticket any snowmobile operating on a public highway for not having license plates. If the vehicle owner figures some way to register his snowmobile and affixes sufficient equipment: brakes, taillights, stop lights, etc.

The Secretary of State also feels snowmobiles should be kept off public roads. James Palmer, legislative agent for the office, says snowmobiles cannot be licensed under present laws because they do not meet the requirements of the safety vehicle code. Legislation which may be proposed should consider registration of the vehicles, minimum equipment standards, and mandatory safety inspection prior to use, Palmer suggests.

Two bills currently under legislative consideration provide for registering and defining snowmobiles but do not include operating restrictions.

Recognizing the need for public control, the Michigan Snowmobile Association suggested legislation and recently met with legislators and state agency personnel. The association proposes that snowmobiles be prohibited from all public highways; that a minimum operator's age be set; that the vehicle be registered with the state and carry visible registration numbers; and that other restrictions which normally apply to moving vehicles be considered.

Marshall Sayles, publisher of the Michigan Snowmobiler, maintains that most snowmobiler operators are responsible citizens, "usually family men." He supports this contention by pointing to the large investment required to purchase a snow machine and popular use of the vehicle for family sport.

Sayles feels that violations do exist and that regulation is necessary if the sport is to continue in popularity and gain public support.

The future of snowmobiling may rest with continued development of public trails and growth of private snowmobile resorts. Some of Michigan's summer "dude ranches" have already made plans to remain open as snowmobile lodges.

These will operate similar to ski resorts, offering guests board lodging, racing tracks and wilderness trails. Such attractions can do much to get snowmobiles out of populated areas, away from pine plantations and other restricted public lands.

DEMONSTRATION!

Reddy Kilowatt is leading a demonstration. His "cause." He's for Better Living for all of us, for a Better Community, for a Growing Economy, and for a Stronger Nation.

How will he help attain these goals? Electrically... because Electricity powers progress.

Think about it! Isn't Electricity one of the greatest sources of energy for turning American dreams into reality?

How can you get in on it? But to enjoy the benefits of Electrical living to the fullest you need Full HOUSEPOWER. Full HOUSEPOWER simply means that your home has enough wires of sufficient size to operate not only all of the electric appliances and equipment you have today, but any you may want to add in the foreseeable future.

Ask your appliance dealer or electrical contractor about the SPECIAL ALLOWANCE for increasing your electric service entrance capacity.

Will They Vote

The nearly 7 million who enrolled in colleges more than 70 per cent are under 21 years and thus will not be eligible to vote in the election in November. How politically are these students, and how representative beliefs have been the militant demonstrators staged on campuses all over the country.

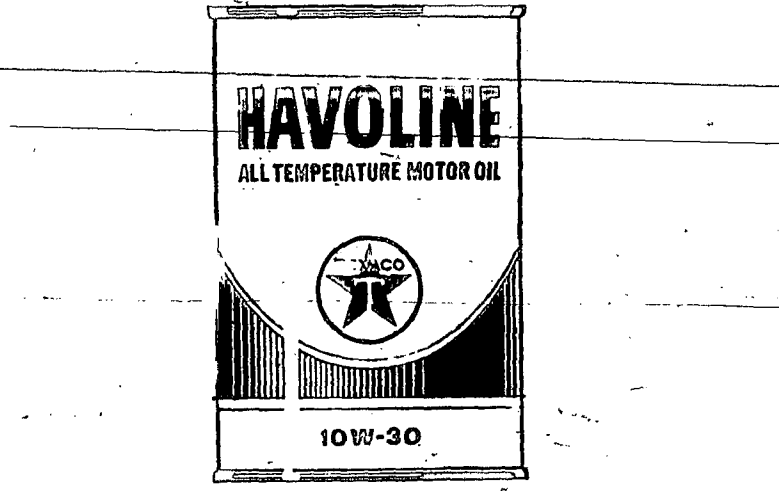

Light may be thrown on the political attitude of college students in the unusual straw vote held on college campuses throughout the in April under the sponsorship of Time. This straw vote has been called CHOICE the vote will take place on some 2,400 campuses. It is expected that over 5 million students will cast ballots. The only test of voting eligibility will be enrollment in a college or university.

There is no doubt that this event will give national politicians some food for thought and, well, for good or ill, have a bearing on and measures advocated by many present leaders who must reckon with the college who will soon become legal voters. 68 may not elect a candidate officially, officially, it will carry a lot of weight and not be approached lightly by participating

ATTY. GEN. KELLEY ISSUES WARNING

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley today warned of a wide-spread operation by Texas speculators to encourage Michigan landowners to sign away all of their rights to oil, gas and minerals on their land. Hundreds, possibly thousands, of landowners in the northern part of Michigan's lower peninsula have been approached through the mail by this operation.

In each case the landowner receives a letter, a mineral deed and a draft on a Texas bank. The letter contains instructions for filling out the deed and cashing the draft (which usually amounts to about 50 cents per acre), but gives no explanation of what the action involves for the landowner.

A careful reading of the deed reveals that if the landowner signs he not only grants the speculator the sole right to explore for oil, gas and minerals, but also signs away all rights to any royalties whatsoever from any oil, gas and minerals which may be found on his land.

In addition, by signing the deed the landowner permits the purchaser to bring drilling and other excavation equipment on to his property, to store it on his land indefinitely, and also to store any oil, gas and minerals on his land.

It appears that many who have received the deed in the mail believe that by signing it they are merely giving the right to the speculator to explore for oil, gas and minerals, and are not signing away their rights to the usual royalties.

Specific reports have been received from Cheboygan, Alpena, Kalkaska, and Presque Isle counties; and there is reason to believe that there has been similar activity in other counties in the northern part of the lower peninsula.

Attorney General Kelley said: "Our reports indicate that this is a large scale operation. We urge any citizen who has received such communication to contact the Consumer Protection Division of my office in Lansing and certainly to check with their lawyer before signing any instrument involving the rights in their land."

"We intend to work closely with the State Conservation Department, county prosecuting attorneys, postal authorities and officials in Texas to determine what steps may be taken to halt this operation."

Carnival

Bear Museum. It was told to your reporter that the Circle "D" horses on the hayride sleigh almost stopped in their tracks because they were weary of pulling loads of happy groups wanting sleigh rides.

It all began in Grayling Saturday morning when the 12 Queens from all over Michigan registered at the Chief Shoppens Hotel, met the press, and had an early lunch before the day's activities began. Mt. Fred and Skyline had fine crowds with skiing the finest of the winter and everyone in a holiday mood.

The Levi Ski Rodeo began Saturday morning at Bear Mt. and ski competitors from 8 to 18 years of age showed off their ability on the boards.

The Snow Hares of the Heath Corporation, Richmond, Mich., gave an excellent exhibition of snowmobile acrobatics in front of the Bear Mt. lodge Saturday afternoon and a thrilling and crowd pleasing show was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Saturday night activities centered around the Grayling High School where the Miss Michigan Winter Sports Pageant was held. Twelve beautiful and talented girls vied for the coveted title of Miss Michigan Winter Sports. The title of the Queen went to Miss Sandra Lee Ritzke of Marquette, Mich. sponsored by the Marquette Jaycees and it also was Miss Ritzke who won the close competition for Miss Congeniality of the Pageant. First runner-up was Mary Lou Sweig of Saginaw who was Miss Timbertown U.S.A. sponsored by the Saginaw Jaycees and second runner-up was our own Vicki Scheer who is Miss Grayling and she was sponsored by the Grayling area Jaycees.

Following the Pageant a reception for the Queens, their families, chaperones and judges was held in the dining room of the Chief Shoppens Hotel.

Sunday brunch was held at the Lone Pine Inn for Queens, chaperones, and judges. With the cooperation of the City of Grayling, the Police Department, and the Crawford County Sheriff's Department, a parade of decorated snowmobiles carrying the Queens left West's Lone Pine Inn for Bear Mt. At Bear Mt. the Queens enjoyed a full afternoon of sleigh rides, toboggan rides, skiing, and a reception at the Fred Bear Museum.

During the afternoon the Petoskey Skating Club put on an exhibition of figure skating in near blizzard conditions.

An Open Letter to the Citizens of Grayling

A mere thank you would not be enough from the Pageant and Winter Sports Committees for your support. We all know that it takes a lot of hands and hearts to see a big job through. Many communities do not have such citizens, but such is not the case in our wonderful community. It is so heartwarming to have the citizens of Grayling behind us 100 percent.

The citizens of Grayling not only gave of themselves to establish a wonderful educational scholarship (one of the largest in the State of Michigan), but they went one step further - they supported the Pageant and contestants by giving gifts and being there to applaud their efforts in a star - packed show. You made 12 contestants, their chaperones, their families, and the committee very happy and pleased that they could entertain you.

Your attendance at the Bear Mountain Ski Park gave a real boost to the performers, and through an extremely cold day, your enthusiasm was unbounded.

Our restaurant and motel people gave every accommodation and consideration in a time when your time is most limited in serving a packed house. Your friendly manner was so appreciated.

A personal note to my wonderful and very able committees, I second the emotions of 12 contestants and their chaperones when they said in parting "your hospitality, friendliness, and cooperativeness is unmatched anywhere; may we return again and again."

Marilyn G. Longworth (Mrs. Earl H. Longworth) Pageant Director, Miss Michigan Winter Sports Pageant, Grayling, Michigan.

Crawford, Grayling Share in Fourth Quarter Highway Fund

LANSING - The State Highway Commission is distributing fourth quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties, cities and villages.

Henrik E. Stafseth, State Highway Director, said net Highway Fund receipts during October, November and December, 1967, totaled $66,436,598, an increase of $1,720,204 compared to the same period of 1966.

Crawford County's share is $84,899 while Grayling will receive $5,215.

The Highway Fund is made up of all state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, and license plate fees. After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, the Highway Commission gets 47 percent, counties 35 percent, and the state's 523 cities and villages 18 percent.

Under this formula, the Highway Commission will receive $31,223,201, counties $23,232,009, and cities and villages $11,981,388.

The amount paid to counties includes $752,076 in snow removal funds distributed on the basis of recorded snowfall in each county last year.

Kiwanis Club Notes

By Robert McIntosh

A regular meeting of the Grayling Kiwanis Club was held Monday, February 12 at the Chief Shoppens Hotel. The meeting was called to order at 6:15 by Jay Doty.

Following dinner introduction of visiting Kiwanis brethren from Houghton Lake was made by their 1968 president, Bob Enos. Other members of the Houghton Lake club in attendance were Don Elgas, Harold Forman, Dick Fuller, Ted Gailbraith and Gordon Hess. They came well-represented and subsequently formed an Inter-Club.

Chuck Kolb introduced his visiting guest, Charles McNally, formerly of Dayton, Ohio but just recently (Jan. 18, 1968) new member. Also introduced as guests were Mary Zimmerman and Father Louis Ivandic. When all noses were counted there was a total of 27 Kiwanians and guests.

President Jay Doty presented three perfect attendance pins, to John Latusek, 11 years, Eric Post, 15 years, and our example setter Earl Burns, 28 years. Congratulations.

Monday was induction night and Eric Post acted as M.C. Marv Zimmerman and Father Louis Ivandic joined as members. Earl Burns and Lorne Douglas did the honors in charging them with the objects and objectives of Kiwanis.

Chuck Kolb brought words of appreciation from the Boy Scout Troop for the sponsorship and help given them. Bob Bovee reported that bids have been opened for the Kirtland Community College and were 10 percent below estimates. With a start like that it can't help but be a success.

With all business resolved the meeting was adjourned at 7:30.

Land, Water and Fish

By Willard Bosserman, County Extension/Natural Resource Agent

Fifth and sixth grade students in Crawford County and St. Helen learned how land use affects water and fish. They learned this from a film called "Land, Water, and Fish."

The film was produced by the Michigan Department of Conservation. It showed how land misuse in the Rifle and Pine River basin was choking out those two rivers.

They saw how defectors were placed in these two rivers to make deep pools for fish and how stream banks were protected from rip rapping. Fences were put up to keep out cows. In animals caused soil erosion which filled the rivers with silt.

The 275 boys and girls who shown the film as a part of the 4-H Water Conservation program.

Charles Welsh, Information Education Officer, Regional Headquarters, Michigan Department of Conservation told writer that the conservation department no longer does such extensive river reclamation cause of lack of funds but maintain the ones established.
